Re: Freedom of Information Act Request Relating to 90 Westwood Avenue, Fort
Bragg, California

To Whom it May Concern:

We hereby request copies of the following public records maintained or retained by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA"):

All records relating to the regulation of air pollutant emissions at the property located at 90 West Redwood Avenue, Fort Bragg, Mendocino County, California, or any portion thereof ("Site"), from 1885 to the present, including but not limited to:

- All Clean Air Act permits, authorities to construct, applications for permits, applications for authorities to construct, or other communications relating thereto;
- All records relating to Best Available Control Technology, Lowest Achievable Emission Rate, or other records describing control of air emissions;
- All notices of violation, notices to comply, or other document indicating noncompliance with air quality regulations;
- All complaints from the public;
- All penalty assessments, settlements, or other document indicating a penalty and/or settlement for noncompliance with air quality regulations;

- Any records relating to atmospheric emissions of dioxin, including but not limited to, calculations, estimates, comments;
- Any records relating to scrubbers used to abate boiler emissions, including but not limited to, scrubber efficiency, disposal and/or removal of scrubbed material at the site;
- Any other records pertinent to the emission and control of air pollutants.

Please send the documents to me at the following address:
